Copenhagen, October 18.

THE Asiatick Company's Ship called the Copenhagen, from Canton, is now come into this Road, as is also one called the Dock from Tranquebar. They are still expecting one from China, and another from Tranquebar.

Amsterdam, Oct. 25, N. S. We have Advice from Paris of the 21st Instant, that the English Troops under General Sinclair had made a second Descent at the Point of Quiberon near Grucis, and had made themselves Masters of a Battery, which entirely covered their Camp: That the Town of Nantes was in the utmost Consternation, and that the Arriere Ban had Orders to march. By Letters from Liege of the 21st Instant, Marshal Saxe set out upon the 20th from Tongres, in his Way to Brussels and Paris, having left the Command of the French Troops, which were said to have entirely evacuated the Territories of Liege, and to be in March for Louvain, to M. Lowendahl. By our last Accounts from Brussels, the Rear Guard of the French Army was encamped near Louvain, from whence it was expected to remove quickly into Winter Quarters.

Hague, October 25, N. S. The French Army is supposed to have broke up about the 20th Instant; and some Advices received to Day mention the Austrian Irregulars having already possessed themselves of Tongeren, where the French had left an Hospital. We have Advice here, that his Britannick Majesty's Troops made a second Descent on the 15th Instant, upon the Coast of Britany, a little to the East of Port Louis. The News of the young Pretender's having gained the Coast of France, in the Neighbourhood of Morlaix, is confirmed.
